

Please do not overturn the no call list. We are an older couple. Before the no call list came about, we were receiving numerous phone calls a day from solicitors. Many were very rude. We value our private time at home. We ask you again, please do not overturn the no call list. Thank you.